stop reading the letters and just eat your soup there's a fuck of a lot of believing to do and i can't recall how to do it not a twitch of the lid or an arch of the back it was only a moan as a matter of fact an unbroken bone till you threw it

12 3 10 think i feel it now... $\frac{3}{3}$ as a part of me there's no reason to do it and no reason not to except for the fact that i really don't want to but when has that stopped me before don't have any more time for these you's and these i's i'm making a world where no pronoun applies and engraving our names in the ice Repeat Instrumental Bridge & 1st Chorus will i pay / for all this time or is the payment made / in kind...

i could still feel the weight of your eyes on my back / it was only the moment right after the fact
